

SHARING YOUR STORY RESOURCES

HEART MAP

STORYTELLING WORKSHEET

- What is the point you want people to take away upon hearing this story?
- What audience would you want to tell this story to?
- Who are the main people involved? Is it a single person or a group of people?
- Where is your story located? What is the setting? (Include examples for each question if possible)
- What barrier(s)/conflict(s) does he or she come across?
- How does your protagonist pursue his or her goal? (What does the protagonist do to try to overcome these barriers? What activities keep the story's momentum going?)
- What is the moment of truth in your story?
- What is the meaning or lesson of the story? What do you want your listener(s) to take away?

GRAPHIC ORGANIZER

PERSONAL NARRATIVE – Graphic Organizer

Consider:

- Topic
- Time
- Place
- Beginning
- Middle
- End
- Sensory Details
- Emotions and Feelings

This story is about

First,

Next,

Then,

Finally,

	WAYS TO BEGIN A NARRATIVE
Emotion or Feeling
Action
Dialogue
Description

	WAYS TO END A NARRATIVE
Reflective or Circular
Hopes or Wishes
Moral or Lesson Learned
Decision/Call to Action		